► The Board met for discussion and decision of People's Health Express prescription discount cards. Commissioner Jim Rokosch was not present for this meeting.

Commissioner Grandstaff gave a brief overview of the People's Health Express prescription discount cards. She stated the plan is through sponsorship and the County would receive 5 cents on every prescription as revenue.

Commissioner Thompson reviewed the current NACo prescription discount cards in use. He stated he has heard from some people the discounts are not great but in some instances it does help. He stated he thought it was really going to help people but is sadly disappointed with the outcome. It was decided to have the representative come back and give a presentation. Commissioner Chilcott and Commissioner Driscoll suggested having local pharmacists come in and decide which one to use. It was the Board's consensus to contact local pharmacists for their opinion regarding both programs.
